ILSI Conflict of Interest/Disclosure Form Board of Trustees

Name

As a Board of Trustees member of the International Life Sciences Institute (ILSI), I have the right, authority, opportunity, and obligation to participate in the governance of ILSI. As such, all actions taken in my capacity as a trustee of ILSI must be in the best interest of ILSI. Further, I must recuse myself from votes on issues that might be construed as conflict of interest.

The following are relationships, interests, or situations involving me or a member of my immediate family that might be or give the appearance of being a potential conflict of interest between myself and ILSI.

- Suggested minimum time period for disclosures is 3 years prior to date of completion and those that will become active within the next 12 months.
- Examples of relevant relationships include:
  - You own stock in, serve on the board of, or are a paid consultant to a company which sells goods or services to ILSI. or from which ILSI is contemplating purchasing goods or services (e.g., a PR firm to be engaged for a branding effort, a potential hotel property for the annual meeting, or a contract laboratory engaged to carry out work for ILSI.
  - Your spouse sits on the board of directors of a business which sells goods or services to ILSI or from which ILSI is contemplating purchasing goods or services.
- Note that connections and relationships are not inherently conflicts of interest; it is only when they create a real or perceived incentive to make a decision on behalf of ILSI that is averse to ILSI's best interests that they rise to the level of conflicts of interest.

- (If you have no conflicts of interest related to ILSI to report in any of these categories, you may simply write, "None.")
